MPH Global: Vocal Intensive Seminar with Carrie Manolakos

Level: Upper School, 9-12

Meets online on Monday, June 28 and Thursday, July 1 from 6:30 – 8:45 p.m.

Tuition: $500

Description

Vocal Intensive Seminar provides vocalist with new perspectives! Students will actively practice through mentored group participation, developing their vocal techniques, body awareness, vocal diction, and performance style. Students should prepare an excerpt of a song to work on in the seminar. Additionally, students will record videos and receive individualized feedback outside of live group sessions. Guest artist faculty Carrie Manolakos teaches this course.

Carrie Manolakos is a 2002 graduate of Manlius Pebble Hill. She is best known for her roles as Sophie Sheridan in Broadway's Mamma Mia! and Elphaba in the touring company of Wicked. She is a storyteller in every sense of the word whether she's on a Broadway stage, performing solo in a concert hall, or singing in films such as The Greatest Showman, Incredibles 2, Croods: A New Age and more. In February of 2020, Manolakos made her Carnegie Hall debut with the New York Pops singing the songs of her heroes and playing her original music. Ms. Manolakos is also founder and CEO of Carrie U Voice Institute where she works with singers and artists of all levels to find their authenticity, power and joy through their voice.
