About Manlius Pebble Hill School

As Central New York's only non-sectarian pre-k through grade 12 independent school, we foster meaningful learning, not just test-taking. Working closely with expert, imaginative teachers, our students know how and why to learn—and they love doing it. Our graduates thrive in the nation's top colleges and go on to forge purposeful, satisfying lives.

We call that The MPH Effect. And now children from throughout the state can experience it firsthand.
