

Summer Assignment

Today, Europe looks a lot different than what it looked like during the Renaissance. However, in many ways it is also the same. This summer I would like you read a book on the current status of the Europe. Below is a review.

Fractured Continent: Europe's Crises and the Fate of the West by William Drozdiak

Publisher: W. W. Norton & Company; 1 edition (September 12, 2017)

ISBN-10: 0393608689

ISBN-13: 978-0393608687

A. Develop Context:

- Research the development of the EU from 1953 through 2000.

B. Read the book

1. As you read the book, annotate for both the main ideas and for contradictions you see- i.e take a dialectical approach to note taking.
2. You may annotate on the book directly or, if you have taken it from the library, compile your annotations in notes form separately.

C. PRESENT

When we return to school we will discuss the book in a seminar. Good luck students!! I look forward to seeing you all!
