Description

Orchestra Discovery is an early beginner course designed for students ages three through five (with a caregiver), aimed towards cultivating a love of music while developing instrument readiness skills for future study. Highlights include building a “box” violin, learning aural and rhythmic skills through musical games and activities, and interactive instrument demonstrations. The class runs for 40 minutes, with approximately minutes of instructional time and 10 minutes of community time. All required supplies will be provided.

Teresa Mirakian is the Pre-K-12 strings teacher at Manlius Pebble Hill School and artistic director of MPH Global. Mrs. Mirakian has completed long-term Suzuki teacher training and has a M.M. in Suzuki Pedagogy. Past teaching positions include teaching strings in the Cambridge Public Schools and the Suzuki School of Newton (MA). As a violinist, Mrs. Mirakian has performed with Symphoria, the Granite State Symphony, the Boston Philharmonic, the Lexington Symphony, and the New Philharmonia Orchestra.
