Description

Mixed Level Cello is a group class focused on developing overall musicianship. This class is open to students with at least six months of cello study. Through exercises, songs and games, students will work on posture, tone production, and ear training. Students will receive individualized attention on technique in a supportive community setting. Class repertoire is drawn from the Suzuki Method. Guest Artist Faculty Zachary Sweet teaches this class.

Zachary Sweet is a registered Teacher Trainer with the Suzuki Association of the Americas. He is currently an instructor of cello at Nazareth College, Binghamton and Colgate Universities, and on the faculties of Ithaca Talent Education and Music Together of Ithaca. Mr. Sweet performs extensively throughout the Tri-State area as soloist, chamber musician and orchestral player. Currently, Zachary is principal of Colgate University Orchestra and Tri Cities Opera, and performs regularly with the Society for New Music.
